HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
Hoofland's German Tonic.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts,) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.
Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.
Those who have no objection to the combination of the bitters, as stated, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.
The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:
Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.
The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigation and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well known remedies—
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.
Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.
These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.
DEBILITY,
Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.
There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is removed from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.
PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,
And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.
NOTICE.
It is a well established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; they are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.
To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.
WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN,
Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.
Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. These, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.
TESTIMONIALS.
HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:
Philadelphia, March 18, 1867.
"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of great debility, and want of nervous action. Yours, truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD."
HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.
"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of indigestion or dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of its virtues. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."
FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear conscience I can speak in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who stand from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.
FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL,
Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.
I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.
Yours truly,
E. D. FENDALL.

ED. GLOBE:—At the request of some of my friends, I send the poem enclosed for re-publication. It has been going the rounds of the papers for years without any signature. I wrote it for the Cincinnati Commercial, six years ago, over my initials which became detached in some way. C. W. L.

SIX LITTLE FEET ON THE FENDER.

In my heart there liveth a picture,
Of a kitchen rude and old,
Where the fire light tripped o'er the rafters,
And reddened the roof's brown mould;
Gilding the steam from the kettle
That hummed on the foot-worn hearth,
Throughout all the live long evening,
Its measure of drowsy mirth.

Because of the three slightshadows,
That frescoed that rude old room—
Because of the voices echoed
Up 'mid the rafter's gloom—
Because of the feet on the fender,
Six, restless white little feet—
The thoughts of that dear old kitchen
Are to me so fresh and sweet.

When the first dash on the window
Told of the coming rain,
O! where are the fair young faces
That crowded against the pane?
While bits of fire light stealing
Their dimpled cheeks between,
Went struggling out in the darkness
In shreds of silver sheen.

Two of the feet grew weary,
One dreary, dismal day,
And we tied them with snow-white ribbons,
Leaving him there by the way.
There was fresh clay on the fender,
That weary, wintry night,
For the four little feet had tracked it,
From his grave on the brown hill's height.

Oh! why on this darksome evening
This evening of rain and sleet
Rest my feet all alone on the hearthstone?
O! where are those other feet?
Are they treading the pathway of virtue
That will lead us together above?
Or have they made steps that will dampen
A sister's tireless love?

Mrs. CORNIE W. LAWS.

The Danger of Seymour's Insanity.

Alluding to the attempt of the New York World to explain away the reports of insanity in the Seymour family, the Cincinnati Gazette narrates and vouches for these facts:—

1. Gov. Seymour's father, Henry Seymour, shortly after the exposure of some of his malpractices as canal commissioner of New York, became subjected to fits of mental aberration, in one of which he committed suicide by blowing his brains out.

2. Gov. Seymour's brother fell a victim to the same terrible malady, and likewise died a maniac suicide.

3. Gov. Seymour himself has been constantly warned by his family and physicians to avoid harrassing mental cares and great excitement, as almost inevitably tending to develop the same taint in his own blood. Once, after some heavy pecuniary losses, they took the precaution to remove him from political excitement in New York to the secusions of Minnesota, and kept him there in retirecy for several months, in accordance with the suggestion of his physicians. His mind was believed then, by both the physicians and the family, to be trembling on the balance.

4. Gov. Seymour has himself referred, as distinctly as could be expected, to the imminent peril in which, as he well knows, he is standing. To Mr. Harvey, a member of the Massachusetts delegation to the New York Convention, he said significantly that his health (which the World takes care to pronounce perfect) was such that it would be most perilous for him to accept the nomination. If his physical health were perfect, what could it be that made it perilous for him but the danger of excitement at which his medical advisers were constantly pointing, with the admonition, "That way lies death." To the New York delegation he said, in one of his speeches at their caucuses, that they well knew that it would be dangerous for him to enter upon such a life of trained uncertainty and anxiety as the canvass would open up. To the convention itself he said: "I cannot become your candidate without imperiling both the party and myself." These are facts of public notoriety. No New Yorker, during the convention, pretended to deny Gov. Seymour's danger from insanity. Many of those in the delegation frankly admitted it to be an insuperable bar to their presenting him as a candidate. It was as freely talked about and as currently recognized among the better informed delegates, as the existence of Pendleton's greenback theory, or Blair's letter. He received the nomination, as is known, in an agony of conflicting emotions, and his first exclamation was "My God, what shall I do?"

To elect the democratic candidate is to stimulate fresh rebellion at the South, and to place at the head of public affairs a man whom such excitement must, in his own fear, in the belief of his family and of his physicians, send to the lunatic asylum. It is to plunge the nation into new whirlpools, and give it a crazy pilot. Or rather, to look straight to the inevitable end, it is to make Gen. Frank Blair President of the United States. This is not a matter to be salved over by pleas for the sanctity of family affairs. It is not a matter to be whistled down by stilted talk about the decencies of political discussion. The decency consists in forcing such a peril upon the country, not in giving the country timely warning of it. Shall Frank Blair be President instead of General Grant? This is the practical question.

☞ The young lady who was recommended to take exercise to improve her health, says that she "will jump at an offer and run her own risk."

Gems from Democratic Speeches.

We call the attention of our readers to the following choice selections from the speeches of various prominent Democrats, including Seymour and Blair. Straws show which way the wind blows.

SEYMOUR PREFERRED CONFEDERATE CONSTITUTION.

Horatio Seymour, after the adoption of the Confederate Constitution, said to Judge Charles H. Ruggles:—"It is better than ours, (the Federal.) Then why not obviate all difficulty, by simply adopting that (Confederate) Constitution?"

A REBEL SOLDIER THREATENS ANOTHER WAR.

"We can have no relief unless the Democratic party will pledge itself that we shall have a fair election; that the white people of the South shall vote. I want to register an oath that when they do vote their votes shall be counted, and if there is a majority of white votes (leaving out black of course) that you will place Seymour and Blair in the White House in spite of all the bayonets that shall be brought against them.—Wade Hampton.

THE "LOST CAUSE" TO BE REGAINED.

"What the South fought for will be won by the election of Seymour and Blair.—[Gov. Z. B. Vance.

SECESSION NOT DEAD.

"I do not care for the platform. It tells a lie in its first resolution. It says 'secession is dead.' Secession is not dead. It is more alive than ever.—[Gov. Wise.

THE CONFEDERACY MUST TRIUMPH.

The cause for which Stonewall Jackson fell cannot be in vain; but in some form will yet triumph."—[Wade Hampton.

HOW A DEMOCRAT HATES THE UNION.

"I hate a Union of blood and plunder, of oppression and tyranny, a Union headed by a usurping cabal called the Congress of the United States. I hate it, I spit upon it." [Speech of Col Yerger, to the Democratic Club of New York.

THE REBELS TO OVERTHROW THE STATE GOVERNMENTS.

"Let the incoming Democratic Administration only agree and keep its hands off, and we will soon show which and what are the de facto governments in the Southern States."—Mobile Tribune.

HONOR TO REBELS.

What civilized people on earth would refuse to associate with themselves in all the rights and honors and dignities of their country such men as Lee and Johnston?—[F. P. Blair, Democratic candidate for Vice President.]

Democratic Praise of Grant.

Nothing embarrasses the Democratic leaders more than their spontaneous compliments to General Grant. If they were collected and indexed they would make the most acceptable of all our campaign documents. We present two fresh contributions to this treasury of information.

Hon. James R. Doolittle, of Wisconsin, now on the stump against Grant, spoke of him as follows, as early as the 12th of February, '64, when the bill creating the grade of Lieutenant General was pending before the Senate:

I feel satisfied that we shall not make a mistake if we say that we create the office of Lieutenant General, and that General Grant is the man to fill it. For two years in succession he has done nothing but win victory—from the capture of Fort Donelson, at Grand Gulf, on Black River, at Jackson, around Vicksburg, and, last and not least, at the last battles of Chattanoogr, where he secured, in my opinion, forever within our military possession Eastern Tennessee. He has gained and earned, by two years of continual success, this rank and grade; and he is the man whom the war has demonstrated to be the proper man, and which all concede has demonstrated to be the proper man, to be, next to President, and under the President, the commander-in-chief of our armies. As a friend says, he has won seventeen battles, he has captured a hundred thousand prisoners, he has taken five hundred pieces of artillery, and innumerable thousands of small arms on all these fields. He has organized victory from the beginning; and I want him in a position where he can organize final victory and bring it to our armies, and put an end to this rebellion.

But more remarkable than this was the language of Hon. James W. Nesmith, on the same day, then a Senator from Oregon, and now the Democratic leader in that State. We have not been informed whether Mr. Nesmith has espoused the cause for Seymour, but if he has, these strong words of his will be a strange mirror in which to study his sincerity:

I appreciate the services of General Grant; I am anxious for the passage of the bill, and I am anxious that Gen. Grant shall have the appointment.—There is no honor that I would not confer on him, as I expect myself to vote for him for President of the United States, and being willing to cast a vote of that kind, I should not be willing here to-day to do anything to degrade him.—Extract from Congressional Globe, February 12, 1864.

☞ The Democrats are insulting the brave men who were under Gen. Meade, and the patriotic men who rushed at the call of Governor Curtin, when they say that Governor Seymour saved our State Capital.

The Democratic Platform.

WHO MADE IT—AND HOW.

Wade Hampton was welcomed, on his return to Charleston, at an immense Democratic meeting to ratify the nominations and platform of Blair and Seymour. From a full report of his own speech, evidently prepared with great care, we extract the annexed passage, to which we invite the thoughtful attention of patriotic Northern Democrats. He remarks:

I yield to none in devotion to that "Lost Cause" for which we fought. Never shall I admit that the cause itself failed, and that the principles which gave it life were therefore wrong. Never shall I brand the men who upheld it so nobly as "rebels" or "traitors."

He then proceeds: As it was my good fortune to be on the Committee which framed this instrument, it may be interesting to you, perhaps, to learn the details by which it was perfected, and the views of those who made it.—As you are aware, the Committee on Resolutions consisted of one member from each State. On assembling it was found that a very great difference of opinion existed. Among other resolutions offered were some declaring that the right of suffrage belonged to the States, and this was announced to be good Democratic doctrine. I agreed to the propositions, but at the same time said that it seemed to me they had omitted one very vital point, which was to declare to what States the doctrine applied. I thought it very necessary to guard and limit that declaration, and to the end that we might know at what time we could go back and say who were the citizens of the States, I asked that they would declare that these questions belonged to the States under their Constitutions up to the year 1865. Gentlemen were there from North, South, East and West, and by all we were met with extreme cordiality. They said they were willing to give us everything we desired; but we of the South must remember that they had a great fight to make, and it would not be policy to place upon the platform that which would engender prejudice at the North They, however, pledged themselves to do all in their power to relieve the Southern States, and restore to us the Constitution as it had existed. As we were met in such a kindly spirit, I could not but reciprocate. I knew I was representing the feelings of my people when I did so, and I told them I would withdraw all the resolutions I had offered, and no doubt other Southern delegations would do the same, and would accept the resolutions offered by Hon. Mr. Bayard, the Senator from Delaware, which declared that the right of suffrage belonged to the States. I said I would take the resolutions if they would allow me to add three words, which you will find embodied in the platform. I added this: "And we declare that the Reconstruction Acts are revolutionary, unconstitutional and void." (Immense cheering.) When I proposed that, every single member of the Committee and the warmest men in it were the men of the North—came forward and said they would carry it out to the end. Having thus pledged themselves, I feel assured that when the Democratic party come to triumph they will show us a remedy for our misfortunes in their own good time, for which I am perfectly willing to wait. Such is the history of our platform, and such were the motives which governed the Committee in its formation. As the representative of South Carolina on that Committee, I present that platform to you in the earnest hope that it will meet your cordial approval. As to my own share of the work performed in the Committee, I can assure my fellow-citizens that the only objects for which I labored were to make it a strong and honest platform, one that would secure the rights of the South, and protect the honor of my State. It is for you to say how these objects have been fulfilled.

Now, gentlemen, the platform embodying the principles of the Democratic party has been given to the country. Upon that platform we have placed our candidates, for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, Horatio Seymour and Frank P. Blair.

GOOD ADVICE.—Never shirk your duties, however low and mean they may seem to you Remember that you do as well as ever you can what happens to be the only thing within your power to do, is the best and surest preparation for higher service.—Should things go against you, never give way to debilitating depression; but be hopeful, brave, courageous, careful not to waste in vain and unavailing regret the power you will need for endurance and endeavor. Learn well your business, whatever it may be; make the best of every opportunity for acquiring any sort of knowledge that may enlarge your acquaintance with business in general, and enable you to take advantage of any offer or opening that may come. Above all things, remember that character is essential to success in life; and that character is the best which is real and thorough, true and genuine to the core—which has nothing underlying it of the consciousness of secret sin; which is as pure and unspotted as it is thought to be, and the moral and manly virtues of which are based upon and inspired by a religious faith—by that love and fear of God which at once preserve from "great transgressions," and prompt to the cultivation of every personal and social virtue.—From seventeen to thirty.

MAINE!

[From the Philadelphia Press.]

"Have you heard the news from Maine?"
The great northeastern State
Which opens into Yankee-land
A mighty granite gate.
There treason hoped to rule
And there it writhes in pain;
But they've turned the tide to the other side;
Hurrah for the news from Maine!

"Have you heard the news from Maine?"
'Tis a question old you know;
They asked it ere the boys were born,
Some thirty years ago.
It meant that men had heard
Of overwhelming gain;
And for me and you it still is true:
We have heard the news from Maine!

"Have you heard the news from Maine?
Do you hear the shouts afar?"
We have gained the second victory
In slavery's second war,
And we shall hear those shouts
Again, and yet again.
Cheer, voice and hand thro' all the land:
We have heard the news from Maine.

"Have you heard the news from Maine?"
In the main we're always right,
And what she is she'll still remain,
In every coming fight.
Pass, pass the word around!
And thunder out the strain!
We've won at a bound the second round!
Hurrah for the news from Maine!

A Democratic General Repudiates Seymour and Blair.

In the Democratic State Convention which nominated Boyle and Ent, it was pre-arranged that no soldier should be placed on the Democratic State ticket. After Boyle was nominated for Auditor General, it was evident to the soldiers who had been hoodwinked to attend that Convention that the purpose was to overslaugh them. At this juncture General Sweitzer, of Allegheny county, warned the Democracy that if they deserted the soldier the braves would certainly not support that party. Intimidated by this declaration, the Democracy reconsidered their arrangements to repudiate the soldier, and nominated General Ent for Surveyor General But General Sweitzer was not deceived by this reluctant recognition of the soldier. It seems that he has been closely watching the course of the Democratic leaders, and, having fully considered the platform on which Seymour stands, he is convinced that the election of that man, pledged to the principles of the Democratic party, will plunge the country into another war. General Sweitzer unhesitatingly declares that we have reached a point, where an election for President means peace or war, and singular as it may appear, the party which cried against war when it was necessary to save the Government are now clamoring for armed conflict when it is sure to destroy it. In view of these facts, this bold soldier makes no hesitation to avow his determination to vote against Seymour because he considers it necessary in doing so to secure peace for the country. We doubt if any political campaign ever exhibited a grander spectacle than that presented in the attitude of this bold and truthful soldier. He has carefully considered the situation. He has put into one side of the scales his Democracy and in the other his country, and finds that the latter is worth the most and therefore does not hesitate to renounce the former. He has tested, in the most thorough manner, the honesty of the leaders of the Democratic party and finds that they are not true to the peace of the country, and therefore he at once repudiates them to espouse the cause of Republican candidates whom he knows to be faithful in all things relating to national peace, honor and prosperity. After General Sweitzer's declaration in favor of General Grant, no soldier with the self-respect of a man can vote for Horatio Seymour—Harrisburg State Guard.

☞ Letters from well known officers of the regular army stationed in South Carolina and Alabama, confirm all that has been said of the desperate measures the Southern Democrats are resorting to, to carry their States for Seymour and Blair. They say the more violent ones are carrying everything before them and are driving the moderate men into their views as was done in 1861 and 1862, and that the attempt is almost universal to control the votes of the negroes by threats, partly of violence, but mostly by deprivation of employment. One writer says the condition will daily grow worse for the next four weeks, and the election of Seymour would be the signal for a reign of terror throughout the entire South.

☞ Horatio Seymour was chairman of the National Democratic Convention, which, at Chicago, in 1864, declared the war to be a failure, and called for compromise and surrender. He has never apologized for his part in that infamous white feather gathering, nor has the Democratic party ever officially or otherwise retracted this offensive slur on the bravery and efficiency of the volunteer army. Soldier, remember this man next November.

☞ Senator Fowler, of Tennessee, who was one of the seven Senators who voted to acquit President Johnson, and whose position in politics has been doubtful, has finally taken the stump for Grant and Colfax, declaring, after viewing the situation in Tennessee, that the election of Grant is essential in order to preserve peace.

☞ Jerry Black shares Buchanan's dislike of the Blair family, and said, not long ago, "If old Buck knew that a few months after his death his party was to raise Frank Blair to the head of the Senate, the old man's heart would have broken with indignation."

☞The full Union Republican ticket is printed and ready for distribution.

☞Coffee has "riz" in some counties. Perhaps it is being used by Wallace's agents for the purpose it was last year.

☞The rich men don't use coffee, sugar and tea, according to Democratic calculations, now-a-days. They live on air pudding, we suppose.

☞The Grant and Colfax mass meeting in Philadelphia on last Tuesday night numbered fifty thousand voters. Philadelphia promises 10,000 majority for Grant and Colfax.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM.—We are informed that laborers from Maryland are hunting work in the "lower end" of this county. If they should be employed they will most likely leave again a day or two after the election.

☞"Have you heard from Colorado?"—Johnstown Democrat.

Yes. And by your count you have a gain of one. Have you heard from Maine? Only a gain for us of about ten thousand majority!

☞Remember voters, the issues this fall are the same as they were in 1864. Then the rebels in line cheered for McClellan and Democracy. Now you are called upon to defeat Seymour and Blair put in nomination by the rebel leaders.

☞The Peace Democrats in 1864 nominated McClellan and Pendleton in order to give the rebels all they wanted; in 1868, the rebels themselves nominated Seymour and Blair, and now they say they will get all they want when they are elected.

☞It is gratifying to every Union Republican to hear from every part of the district of the popularity of our nominee for the Legislature, Samuel T. Brown, Esq. He is one of the men for the times—honest—capable, and willing to discharge his whole duty as a member of the Legislature.

☞Democrats oppose D. J. Morrell because he is connected with a large iron manufactory in Johnstown. We will agree to support for Congress, or for President, any safe man who will establish such a manufactory in this place. Just such men as D. J. Morrell are wanted everywhere to build up towns and make work for the working people. We wish we had a few Morrells in the 'ancient borough!'

Why they would Tax the Bonds.

Gen. T. F. Bowie, a Democratic leader, said at a Seymour and Blair ratification meeting in Baltimore: "If there be any set of men I would sooner tax, it would be those men who furnished the means to carry on the most unholy war in history. I would not tax them as property, but I would tax them because I can read upon the face of these bonds a contribution to an unholy and wicked purpose."

Every Democrat must know that the Government bonds cannot be taxed; but this reason of Gen. Bowie as to why they should be taxed, is the most convincing proof of the speaker's honesty, and we take it that he speaks the sentiments of a goodly number, if not a majority of his party. We say Bowie is honest when he says that he can read upon the face of these bonds a contribution to an "unholy and wicked purpose." That purpose was to aid in the suppression of the rebellion, and without money the war could not have been waged as successfully as it was. It is knowing this that he and others want them taxed, although it would be an open violation of the Constitution, which says no "obligation shall be impaired," and in direct conflict with six decisions of the U. S. Supreme Court. He wants to tax the men who furnished the means to carry on the most unholy war in history.—There is candor for you, and we thank him for it. He hates the men who came to the help of the Government when it needed money to carry on the war against those who were trying to destroy it; and now they are to be taxed for the sacrifice they made.—Let Seymour and Blair be elected, and he with Wade Hampton, Semmes, and others, will have the bonds taxed to help pay the expenses of their nefarious plotting to destroy the best Government on earth; and the widows and poor men who hold the bonds will suffer the penalty of supporting the Government in its hour of need.

☞Voters, who made the heavy taxes, and the bonds, you hear the Democrats talk so much about, necessary? Why the same men who are now trying to defeat Grant and Colfax. The bonds and the heavy taxes were not in existence when the Democratic National organization 'smashed up' and tried to smash-up the Government. The heavy taxes and the bonds were made necessary that the Government could have strength to defeat the rebellion inaugurated by the Democratic leaders in their Conventions in 1860. The same leaders are now trying to inaugurate another war, and if they should be successful in the election of Seymour and Blair, they will either repudiate the whole National debt or double your taxes to pay off the Confederate debt. Rebels will have a controlling influence if Seymour and Blair should be elected, and it is fair to suppose that they will pay their own debts first before they trouble themselves about paying the debts of our Government made necessary that our men could be clothed and fed while they were fighting to crush the rebellion. Voters, when you hear a Democrat spouting his opposition to taxes and bonds, ask him who forced them upon the people and the Government. If he will confess to the truth he will say the rebels, the Democratic leaders, forced them upon you and your Government. For all the evils growing out of the war, those are responsible who inaugurated the rebellion and sympathised with rebels. Voters, be careful you do not cast your votes with rebels and their political friends.

THAT "BRUTAL OUTRAGE."—The last Monitor makes an unjustifiable attack upon Capt. Neely. It charges him with committing a "brutal outrage" upon a "crazy boy" at Shade Gap on the 31st of last month, by hitting him with a stone while he, the "crazy boy," was hurling stones through the windows of the Captain's dwelling into a room where his family were sitting. The "crazy boy" happened to be a crazy man, some 25 years of age, now confined in the mad-house of our county poor house, where we saw him some two weeks ago. Capt. Neely did what any other man would have done—defend himself and family as best he could from the attack of a "crazy boy" 25 years of age, and quite as stout and active as the editor of the Monitor. The political face of the Monitor article shows how anxious the editor is to hatch up something to defeat Captain Neely. Capt. Neely's vote at home, where he is best known, will tell a tale his enemies will not like to hear. The rebels who assisted in the nomination of Seymour and Blair, are the most bitter opponents of Grant, and we cannot expect those who act in harmony with the rebels to feel very friendly towards Capt. Neely who fought to defeat the rebels.

Read statement in another column made and sworn to by two Democrats and one Republican, neighbors of Capt. Neely.

☞The Democrats do not expect to defeat Hon. D. J. Morrell, our candidate for Congress, but they are anxious to have him 'cut down' from his former vote and majority. Mr. Morrell's popularity at home and in Congress is too well known to the voters to expect any cutting of his name by Union Republicans. He is one of the most useful and influential members in Congress, and his majority cannot be less than two or three thousand at the next election.

ONLY THREE WEEKS.

Union Republicans of Huntingdon county, three weeks from to-day, Tuesday, you will be called upon to vote either for Grant and Colfax or Seymour and Blair. Not for them, but for their friends, for State, district and county officers. Whatever your vote may be in October it will be counted as the strength of Grant and Colfax. The influence of that vote will be felt at the November election; it is important therefore that you poll every vote at the election three weeks from to-day, and poll them solid for every man put in nomination by the Union Republican Conventions. Are you making every effort to be ready for the contest on that day. Remember, if we win the fight clean in October we will have an easy fight and brilliant victory in November. Every election district in the county will be expected to do its whole duty—poll every vote for the whole ticket. Only three weeks—go to work if there is room to work. Perfect your township organizations and give Wade Hampton, Vallandigham, Wallace & Co., to understand that you are on guard duty and that their men cannot pass over into your lines to seek for aid and comfort. Only three weeks, remember.

☞The "Germantown Telegraph," which is not a political paper, thus refers to the present contest for the Presidency:—We never know a campaign which has opened with more spirit, conducted with more earnestness, or which promised more brilliant result than the present. The enthusiasm seems to have broken out all over the country spontaneously to an extent unlike anything we ever remember in any former Presidential contest. And there is a reason for it. The country, not even in 1861, was in more absolute danger. The leaders of the Democratic party, by their nominations and proclamations, formally coalesce with the leaders of the late rebellion, and declare their intention to overthrow the Constitution and Government of the country in the event of their success. This they unblushingly and defiantly publish to the world, and ask the people of the United States, who are now just settling down in peace, to help them to accomplish their infamous purposes. With such truths staring the people in the face will they do it? Not while they love the tranquility and good neighborhood which is now being permanently re established. Not while they love the great country and its old flag. No matter what party they belong to they will never prove false to these."

☞Union Republicans, you have a good county and district ticket. Be not deceived into the support of any part or single man on the ticket offered you by the friends of Seymour and Blair. It should be enough for you to know that every candidate on the Democratic ticket is a straight-out for the success of Seymour and Blair and opposed to Grant and Colfax. If you vote a complimentary vote to please a Democrat, you vote against Grant and the success of his friends. Be sure you count the cost of a vote you may give a Democratic candidate. The Democratic organization includes the leading rebels who are ready when opportunity offers to again plunge our country into war. Will you, by a single vote, support a man who is in sympathy with such an organization? When you make up your minds to fight rebels, make up your minds also to fight all who associate with them.

THE CONTEST IN OCTOBER.—Keep it before the people that the contest on the second Tuesday in October will decide the question whether General U. S. Grant or Blair and Seymour shall be President.

Keep it before the people that he who votes for the Democratic ticket at the October election, while he pretends to be a Republican, casts two votes against Grant and Colfax.

Keep it before the people that a triumph of the Democratic State ticket in Pennsylvania, if it is only by the smallest majority, will secure the State for Seymour and Blair.

Keep it before the people that to vote for any Democrat at the first election, no matter how small the office may be, is giving aid and comfort to the common enemy.

☞It has been reported over the county that there would be a volunteer (Republican) candidate in the field before the election for Sheriff—to aid in the defeat of Capt. Neely. It matters but little whether there is or is not a Republican willing to run as a volunteer candidate to take votes off Capt. Neely. All the votes a third candidate could get wouldn't pay for the trouble of running to defeat a worthy man and a brave soldier. Capt. Neely was fairly nominated as the Union Republican candidate, and he will be honorably supported and elected by the party.

☞Generals Hartranft and Campbell, our State ticket, will not be forgotten by the loyal men of Pennsylvania. They deserve a re-election and they will receive it by a heavy majority if Union Republican voters do their duty. Old Huntingdon must give them an old fashioned majority—not them alone, but for the whole ticket to be voted for in October.

☞Vote for Hartranft, Campbell, and the Republican ticket.

Do You Want More Taxes?

The Democratic speakers, the Democratic papers, and Democratic politicians everywhere, of all sizes and colors, continually cry out against taxes, taxes—and yet we find the 4th resolution of their platform as approved by the Convention that nominated Seymour and Blair reads as follows:

"Equal taxation of EVERY SPECIES OF PROPERTY according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities."

Tax every species of property! What do you think of such a proposition, poor men? Tax "every species of property according to its real value!" Every farmer, every mechanic, every poor man with but little, will have his taxes increased if the Democrats should be successful in electing their President and a majority in Congress. Now the man who can afford to have a piano must pay a tax for it. The man who can afford to have a cart or a wheelbarrow pays no tax for either—but adopt the Democratic platform and its candidates and the cart and the wheelbarrow will be taxed according to their value. Think of it, farmers and working men generally—you will be called upon by the tax collectors for tax assessed upon every species of property not now taxed. "Go in" for the Democratic reform party if you want to be taxed for every species of property—even down to your hen coop and chickens.

WHO ARE RESPONSIBLE?—The people complain of heavy taxes. Who are to blame? If the Democratic party in 1860 had not divided,—had not smashed-up—Abraham Lincoln might not have been elected. Had the Democratic party submitted to the will of the majority, there would have been no rebellion. Had the Southern Democrats not forced their States to secede and take up arms against the Government, the government would not have been compelled to tax the people to pay the expenses of the war to crush the rebellion. Now the same Democratic organization—North and South—ask to be placed in power, that the leading rebels may again have an opportunity to hatch treason, and again inaugurate rebellion. The voters who want more war, more bloodshed and more taxes, should vote for Seymour and Blair. The voters who want peace and prosperity should vote for Grant and Colfax. To secure this State sure for Grant and Colfax in November, vote a solid Union Republican ticket in October.

☞"Ah!" say the Democrats, "you have Gov. Brown and Gen. Longstreet in your party." Well, we know we have and are glad of it. But do you hear these men saying like Gov. Vance, "What the Confederacy fought for will be won by the election of Seymour and Blair," or like Wade Hampton, "The cause for which Stonewall Jackson fell cannot be in vain, but in some form, will yet triumph." We are ready to take a host more such men as Brown and Longstreet, if they show a proper spirit to abide by the laws that are framed for their government, but when the majority of the rebels are rampant and still waiting a chance to secede or run the government themselves, the Union men must be alive to their own interests, and blockade the first opening to an unconditional surrender of all that was fought for during the war.

☞Let every voter picture to himself the circumstances attending the campaign of 1864, and see if they do not resemble the circumstances attending the campaign of 1868. We have the same issues to fight for in peace, as we had in the war, and we have the same leaders to fight against now as we had then. Hampton is as conspicuous for Seymour as he was at the head of his legion. Vallandigham is as strong for Seymour as he was for McClellan in 1864; and all the same Democratic politicians and the rebel Generals are opposing Grant now, as opposed him when at the head of the army.

☞The Democrats talk about their gain in Maine. Now let us see the figures and compare. The highest vote ever given in Maine for a Democratic ticket was that of 51,378 in 1860; the highest votes ever given in that State for the Union ticket were 69,469 in '60 and 69,716 in 1866. The vote of Monday a week last did not vary one thousand from 55,000 for the Democrats, and 78,000 for the Union, in round numbers, a Democratic increase from their highest previous figure of less than four thousand, and a Republican increase of about nine thousand. Over two to one. We can stand such proportions—if they can.

☞What the rebels want Seymour and Blair elected for can be told in a very few words. They expect to get in Congress, and rule over loyal men; they expect to be paid for all losses they sustained in the rebellion; and they expect to have their debt paid. Is it any wonder they are trying so hard to gain a victory now after they were so badly beaten by Grant and the boys in blue during the war. We want Grant at the head of the nation to beat them again.

☞The Grand Union Republican Mass Meeting to be held in this place promises to be a monster affair. Get ready for it and come by hundreds from every direction. Some of the ablest speakers in the State will be on hand to address the crowd. The meeting will be on the 7th of October.

H. C. WEAVER,
Chairman County Committee.

Brief Items.

Don't neglect to attend the meetings called above. Let every man turn out.

The latest name for matrimony is commiserating twoicide.

Enthusiastic—The Grant and Colfax meetings along the Juniata.

The GLOBE was the only Huntingdon paper that gave the Maine news last week.

Some days last week were cold enough to demand the requisition of stoves.

There were a few fights at the show on Tuesday night last. Nobody killed.

A boy twelve years old in Lewistown stabbed another boy with a penknife. They fell out about an apple.

James Fowler was sentenced to pay $50 and costs of prosecution for stoning the Philadelphia Express train. Boys, look out.

The Good Templars supper on Tuesday evening last was attended with plenty of enjoyment.

The Grant and Colfax Tanner Boys of Huntingdon will be out again on Saturday night next.

We learn that a sturgeon weighing ninety pounds, was caught in a fish-basket in the Juniata river at Newport, recently.

When you hear of a man declining to support the business of his own town, be sure he is not one of our best and most useful citizens.

What became of the Democratic meeting announced for Saturday evening last? It must have given way before the pressure of Friday evening.

We have received a copy of the True Light, a new campaign paper, supporting Grant and Colfax, published at Altoona. It is a "red hot" little sheet.

See that every Republican voter in the county is assessed, and has his vote ready for Hartranft, Campbell, Morrell, Brown, Martin, Neely, and the rest of the ticket.

The new station house on the Broad Top railroad at Saxton, is a beautiful and convenient improvement. The Company deserve special thanks for making this improvement.

On the rise—the political fever in the "ancient borough." The ball is now fairly in motion, and it must be kept moving to prevent the Democracy from coming the sneak game over us at the polls.

Union men, what do you think,—some Democrats expect to carry this Congressional and Legislative district, and elect their Sheriff beside. Work away and show them in October how beautifully they are mistaken.

The Quarterly Convention of Good Templars which met in Altoona recently, was attended by delegates from nearly every lodge in this District. It is to be held in Huntingdon next November.

A nuisance: in some places the gas-boxes are near the center of the pavement, and thereby endanger life and limb. We hope they will be removed to one side or levelled with the pavement.

A blind horse belonging to David Gardner in Bedford county, was recently found at the bottom of a twenty-five foot well, grazing on the tender grass. He was extricated, and was none the worse for his tumble.

Mr. Jno. Kephart of Snake Spring township, Bedford county, while plowing, turned up a nest of ninety-one snakes, of the viper species, which averaged a foot in length.—After a brisk chase they were all captured and killed. That township is well-named.

It is not generally understood, but is the fact, that under the new revenue bill all taverns, groceries, dry-goods stores, shops, etc., selling segars and tobacco, are required to take out a special license, as though regularly engaged in the tobacco trade.

The delegation from Huntingdon to Bloody Run on Saturday last, on the occasion of the political discussion between Hon. John Cessna and Hon. Judge Kimmell, are under obligations to Mr. McKillips, Supt. of the H & B. T. R. R. for special and kind attentions.

A mortgage in favor of the city of Baltimore against the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad for $4,000,000, was entered in the Recorder's office in Bedford county on the 15th inst. This instrument required the neat little sum of four thousand dollars worth of stamps. This road is now a stamped fact.

Hon. John Cessna, Republican nominee for Congress in the Bedford district, and Hon. Judge Kimmell, the Democratic nominee for the same position, had a public discussion at Bloody Run on Saturday last. We were anxious to hear the discussion—we did hear it—and we were disappointed. The crowd in attendance was small—Mr. Kimmell's arguments were smaller—and Mr. Cessna was not himself, but he was not in his best talking trim. Perhaps it was because we had heard John Scott the night previous, that the efforts of the gentlemen seemed so weak to us.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Suicide.

Neal McMullen, living in the vicinity of Tipton, committed suicide by hanging himself to the limb of a tree on Sunday morning, 25th inst, while the rest of the family were at Church. He had been suffering an aberration of mind for some time.

Henry & Co., Ahead.

Mr. Johnston has gone to the eastern cities, to buy a heavy stock of Fall and Winter Goods. Look out for them as they will be sold cheap, †1.

PENNA. AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.—The annual meeting of the Delegates from the Agricultural Society was held at the College in Centre county on the 2nd inst. The delegates from this county being present—David Hare, Mr. Port's alternate, representing the latter gentlemen.

Shortly after our arrival we were seated at a table that fairly groaned with delicacies of the farm, prepared in the very best style to suit the taste of all in attendance. The repast finished, by invitation, the delegates proceeded to examine the laboratory, and armory, all of which appeared in proper condition.

A meeting of Delegates was then held in the Lecture room at which Wm. B. Roberts, Esq., of Montgomery presided and John F. Wolfinger, Esq., of Northumberland, Sec'y. 25 societies were represented. Messrs. Kelley of Allegheny, Heister, of Dauphin, and Ellis, of Lycoming together with Gen. White of Indiana (to fill a vacancy) were chosen trustees. After a spirited but pleasant discussion, it was judged expedient that a committee should be appointed by the presiding officer of the meeting to examine into all the affairs of the college and transactions of the trustees, and the trustees are instructed to call a meeting of representatives from all the county agricultural societies of the State, fixed by law at three from each society, at Harrisburg, on Wednesday September 30, 1868, at two o'clock in the afternoon, to meet at the office of the State Agricultural Society, or in such other hall as the President of the Board may then designate. As this meeting is to take place during the State Fair, the location and time will bring together delegates from every county society in the State. It is the expressed desire of the trustees that the meeting should be a full one as it will be of great importance not only to the future prosperity of the State Agricultural College but to the agricultural interest of the State generally.

The main object of the meeting will be to devise ways and means for filling the school with students, there being only a very small number there now.

The expenses of the College department are as follows:

Board and Room Rent $00 per term of 20 weeks.

Tuition	$00 per term
Washing	$5
Fuel	$5

Grammar School $10 less than the above figures.

If there is any person in the county who wish to send their boys to the school they should their send names to the Sec'y. of the Society or one of the delegates, that they may be forwarded to the meeting at Harrisburg on the 30th inst.

The State Agricultural College should be one of the best schools in the State, and all that is necessary to make it such is more energy on the part of the managers and greater care taken about the premises. It is hoped both these necessities will receive proper attention by the Harrisburgh meeting and active measures taken to correct the evils and create new life and vigor in the management of both farm and College.

GRAFFUS MILLER,
DAVID HARE,
HENRY M'MANIGAL,
Delegates from Huntingdon

Our First Meeting.

On Friday night last the Grant and Colfax Tanner Club of this place turned out in procession for the first time. Ninety-nine sets of equipments were in line, headed by the Huntingdon Band. The display was brilliant and attracted much attention. After parading some of the principal streets, the crowd tried to get into the Court Room. The room was soon filled and many could not be accommodated. J. Sewell Stewart, President of the Club, was the first speaker, and did well.—John Scott, Esq., next addressed the crowd.—He made the most able speech our people ever listened to. As far as he was able to go in reviewing the issues before the people he made a clean sheet of it. Nothing was left for the Democracy to dispute, and those present felt his speech severely. We hope to be able to publish a full speech from Mr. Scott before the campaign closes. The Club will meet again on Saturday evening next.

Just So.

One of our business men informed us last week that he has found by actual experience that advertising PAYS. The other week he inserted an advertisement in the columns of the GLOBE, which cost him but a mere trifle, and now he has orders for over $200 worth of work. This is the experience of many, and it will be the experience of all who do good work and advertise what they have done, and what they are prepared to do. We realize more and more the fact that the press is a help to the business man, no matter in what branch, and the sooner all take advantage of it, the better for them.

Campaign Caps, Capes and Torches.

We have made arrangements to furnish Campaign Clubs with Caps, Capes and Torches at manufacturers lowest campaign prices, which will be $1.50, $1.75 or $2.00 per set complete, as to quality and style. The style and several colors can be seen at our Book Store.

Loss of Appetite and Debility.

Of all the tonic preparations now in market, we know of none equal to Speer's "Standard Wine Bitters" for those who suffer either from over mental or physical exertion, resulting in loss of appetite, and consequent debility.

Sold by Druggists.

The Mass Meeting at Orbisonia.

Our friends in the lower end should not neglect to attend the Mass Meeting at Orbisonia on Tuesday next the 29th inst. Rally against the party that wants to tax everything and thereby make the taxes double what they are now. John Scott, Esq., will be one of the speakers.

The Monitor's "Brutal Outrage."

We the undersigned, citizens of Shade Gap, Huntingdon county, do hereby certify that the abusive article contained in the Monitor of September 16th, in regard to Capt. D. R. P. Neely is utterly false in every particular.

In the first place, the statement that Mr. Neely had been "teasing a crazy boy" we know to be false, as he (Mr. Neely,) had been away from town during the day, and did not arrive at home until nightfall.

Second. It is not true that the "manly amusement" was continued "until the little fellow's passion impelled him to throw a stone at his tormentors," &c., as the Monitor unblushingly asserts.

Third. It is not true that the neighbors had to "interfere" to prevent Neely from "inflicting further cruelty" upon the boy, as he attempted nothing of the kind.

The facts in the case as known to us to be true, are simply these: Robert Wilson, who is a grown man, went to the hotel about nine o'clock in the evening, and inquired if Mr. Neely was there, and on being answered that he was not, at once repaired to Mr. Neely's residence, where Mr. N. and his wife and Mr. John Minich were sitting at the table, and said that he "demanded the nomination for Frank Laird." Mr. Neely rose from the table and invited him into the house, as did Mr. Minich also. He did not go in, but stepped back and hurled a number of stones against the house, several of which crashed the window shattering both glass and sash to pieces. Mrs. Neely barely escaped being hit by two or three of the stones before she could escape with her child to a place of safety. Mr. Neely in the midst of this storm of stones, any of which was sufficient to kill a man, and of which the house bears many marks, both outside and in, ran out and hurled two stones at his assailant, one of which struck Wilson on the side. Wilson then started down street followed by Neely and several others. Mr. N. caught him by the clothing but did not abuse him in any way. When caught, Wilson said, "Neely, I have nothing against you; I was a little crazy when I stoned your house, but I am all right now and will pay you for all damage."

"The little fellow," as the Monitor calls him, has voted for several years and is about five feet nine inches in height.

These are the facts in the case as they are well known to the undersigned. We respectfully ask the Monitor to retract the article referred to.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PREDISPOSING CAUSES OF DISEASE.—The causes of disease are general and particular, affecting one or many persons. Now, as the condition of the body is easily disposed under a variety of circumstances to the action of disease, the importance of MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS as a means of combatting and overthrowing the predisposing cause is apparent. It is an invaluable antidote for the human system that is unfortunately all cried with any epidemic virus; and such is its wonderful re-sistent power, that it effectually protects the physique against the evil tendency of an impoisoned atmosphere, or any morbid influence which predispores the body to the reception of disease. It is, therefore, the true remedy for emergency, whose situation or surroundings are not favorable to the preservation of the health. Sold everywhere.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or another of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Uterine affections of the musenlar and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaints. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the remaining poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

GRANT AND SHERMAN.

From the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

"General Sherman has refused to commit himself for Grant in a public speech.—World."

The following is from Sherman's address before the annual meeting of the Army of the Tennessee:—

"After a whole year of toil and battles, varied in adventure that would fill a volume, that renowned fortress (Vicksburg) succumbed at last to the army and navy, led by two heroes that have no superiors in any country; and both of whom still live to reap the reward of their labors—Grant and Porter."

The following was General Sherman's speech at St. Joseph:—

"Gentlemen:—Mr. Grant and myself know how to appreciate any spirit of respect, but neither General Grant nor myself are to be disconcerted by any large crowd. We are used to large crowds, and we cannot be disconcerted. General Grant has declined to make a speech, and I think, occupying the position he does before the country, he acts the part of wisdom.

"Gentlemen, I do not in general counsel violence, but were I a citizen of St. Joseph, I would take that man (referring to the one who cheered for Seymour and Lee), down to the Missouri and duck him. We have fought Rebels, and we thought they had enough of fighting."

The following are extracts from Sherman's letter of March, 1864, to Grant, congratulating him upon his triumphs:—

"You are now Washington's legitimate successor, and occupy a position of almost dangerous elevation, but if you can continue, as heretofore, to be yourself, simple, honest, and unpretending, you will enjoy through life the respect and love of friends and the homage of millions of human beings that will award you a large share in securing to you and their descendants a Government of law and stability. * * * I believe you are as brave, patriotic, and just as the great prototype, Washington—as unselfish, kind-hearted, and honest as a man should be, but the chief characteristic is the simple faith in success you have always manifested, which I can liken to nothing else than the faith a Christian has in the Saviour."

TRUE WORDS.—Hon. W. H. Wadsworth, a member of Congress from Kentucky in the Thirty-eighth Congress, has recently identified himself with the Republican party, and we take the following extract from a speech of his delivered a few days since, in his State. Mr. Wadsworth says:

I long for the coming of the bright day and the glory that will follow in its train, when all men shall be converted to the Union, and the ideas it represents in America. And I want some person like General Grant for the next four years to give play to the great measures born out of the civil war by maintaining, with his strong hand and resolute soul, peace, that the laws may be executed and do their beneficent work. I appeal to you, Union men, in behalf of the growth and development of our American Union, whereby all men shall be blessed, that you support the standard bearers of these great principles. We need for this emergency just such a man as Grant—a tried and true patriot; modest, but firm; a worker, not a talker, (any fool can make speeches); the strongest soul alive.

Some say he is not a great man. Well, he is the greatest man, at least, that the war gave birth to. He conquered Lee; therefore he was greater than Lee. Perhaps he was not a very great general, but he made Lee appear very small. The American people feel that they need him—they will have him. May the issue be fortunate! If the issue is peace, the future is secure. That future will make plain the meaning of the great events in which we were actors. These triumphs and blessings for the future of our country will be due to the success of the Union cause. They are bound up with the success of that cause; they can only be secured by our fidelity to it. To-day Gen. Grant carries our flag and heads the Union hosts; he is moving on the works of the enemy, roited by time, broken down by wrongs. We follow where he leads, with good hope of a victory that shall prove a crowning mercy.

WONDERS.—Some thoughtful person has been cogitating, and has ground out these questions:

When a young man is clerk in a store, and dresses like a prince, smokes "foine cigars," drinks "choice brandy," attends theatres, dances and the like, I wonder if he does all on the avails of his clerkship?

When a young lady sits in the parlor during the day, with her lily white fingers covered with rings, I wonder if her mother doesn't wash the dishes and do the work in the kitchen?

When the deacon of a church sells strong butter, recommending it as a good article, I wonder what he relies upon for salvation?

When a man goes three times a day to get a dram, I wonder if by-and-by he wont go four times?

When a lady laces her waist a third less than nature made it, I wonder if her pretty figure will not shorten life a dozen years or more, besides making her miserable while she does live?

When a young man is dependent upon his daily toil for his income, and marries a lady who does not know how to make a loaf of bread or mend a garment, I wonder if he is not looking somewhere, say toward the top, for instance?

When a man receives a periodical or newspaper weekly, and takes great delight in reading it, but neglects to pay for it, I wonder if he has a soul or a gizzard?

Any person of good moral character who will mail us answers to the above, and enclosing also $2.00 lawful currency, will receive a copy of this paper for one year.

McGUIRE'S

SPANISH HAIR DRESSER

FOR PROMOTING THE GROWTH, BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, AND RENDERING IT dark and glossy. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair. The use of this oil as a hair dresser has been universal in every section of the country in the Spanish Main for centuries.—No preparation of art could give that elegant luxuriance and abundance of hair which have so often been the admiration of travelers in Spain. This oil is highly and delicately perfumed, forming an article unrivaled in excellence and upon which the Spanish people for many years have set its seal of enduring approval.

—o—

McGUIRE'S

Mexican Wild Flowers Shampoo Lotion

For removing dandruff and scurf from the head, whitening and perfuming the skin. This article is entirely different from anything of the kind ever offered in this country and is warranted free from all poisonous substances. This valuable lotion was used by the Emperor Maximilian, and Empress Carlotta of Mexico, and universally used by Mexicans for three hundred years. As a wash for the head—it is cooling, cleansing and refreshing.—When thus used it at once relieves headach'.

—o—

McGUIRE'S

WILD FLOWERS FOR THE TEETH.

All those who are in favor of white teeth and a pleasant and perfumed breath, should at once use McGuire's Wild Flowers for the Teeth. All these preparations are put up in the most elegant and ornamental manner. We make no exception in saying that they are an ornament to a lady's toilet table, and none complete without them.
